Artist - Biljana Baker

Biljana is a full-time watercolour artist who resides in Thunder Bay, Ontario. She was born in Yugoslavia, came to Canada in 1964 and grew up in Toronto. After high school she studied Fashion Design and Fine Arts at Ryerson University and upon graduation was employed in Toronto as a Fashion Designer. Biljana has studied with many prominent artists in Canada, USA and Europe which has led to a career teaching watercolours. Biljana has participated in numerous group and solo shows across Canada and the United States, and her paintings can be found in private and public collections worldwide.

Artist - Peter Humeniuk

Born and raised in Thunder Bay, Peter Humeniuk has had a lifelong fascination with art. From the year old who spent all his spare time drawing, through graphics and design at the Ontario College of Art and Design, he never given up his passion for art. In addition to his own gallery space, Peter has exhibited his work in numerous galleries, including two solo exhibitions sponsored by the National Gallery of Canada and the Art Centre in Toronto. His numerous commissions include public art projects in North America and as far away as Singapore. The Humeniuk "Big Brush" style, noted for its dramatic contrasts and fresh, loose rendering, is popular with collectors and art students alike.
